Using Functional Analysis in Archival Appraisal: A Practical and Effective Alternative to Traditional Appraisal Methodologies:

The identification of recorded information with continuing value that documents corporate and cultural memory is one of the archivist's primary tasks and he/she accomplishes this mission in part through the process of appraisal. But does traditional archival appraisal based on the concepts of primary and evidential values effectively serve the needs of institutional archivists and records managers? In an age of scarcity and the challenge of electro As a fairly dramatic portrayal of the plight of the lone arranger in a small archives who has assistance in the appraisal task only from work study students yet who is called on to tackle the creation of a full fledged records archives for the ins
