Method in the Madness is presented as a companion to researchers investigating the complex world of work. Rather than a 'How to' text on performing research, this book presents a record of experiences. Research so often evolves in the field or the planning stages and a successful researcher needs to be aware of serendipitous opportunities as they arise and how to solve problems as they occur. The book comprises an introduction written by the editors followed by: About the Author Keith Townsend Research Fellow Centre for Work Employment and Wellbeing and the Department of Employment Relations Griffith University Australia Professor John Burgess Director Employment Studies Centre University
