By Kay Cahill : User-Generated Content and its Impact On Web-Based Library Services: Questioning Authority (Chandos Information Professional Series) User-Generated Content and its Impact On Web-Based Library Services: Questioning Authority (Chandos Information Professional Series):

User Generated Content and its Impact on Web Based Library Services examines the impact of user generated content on web based library services. It begins with an overview of Web 2.0 tools and technologies and a brief look at the emerging semantic tools of Web 3.0 and their implications for libraries. The book investigates the changing role of the end user as both a creator and consumer of web content and what this means for society's perception and understanding of it. About the Author Kay Cahill is the Website and Community Development Librarian at Vancouver Public Library. With more than 14 years' experience in the library and information profession in the UK and Canada she is a leading advocate for the strateg
