(Chandos Information Professional Series):

Academic librarians and university instructors worldwide are grappling with an increasing incidence of student plagiarism. Recent publications urge educators to prevent plagiarism by teaching students about the issue and some have advocated the value of a subject specific approach to plagiarism prevention education. There is however a complete lack of resources and guidance for librarians and instructors who want to adopt this approach in their teaching. This book opens hellip this book has appeared at exactly the right time to remind us of the importance of information ethics in academic education and beyond. The Australian Library Journal hellip fills a gap in the literature and will prove a vital addition to the collection.
